

APPLICATION INSTRUCTIONS

The New Applicant Housing Application and Contract is for use by new students, transfer students and current IU South Bend students not living in housing during the 2008-2009 year.

Students who wish to live in University housing for the 2009-2010 academic year should print, complete and return the 2009-2010 Housing Application-Contract with a $200 prepayment deposit to the address listed on the Housing Application-Contract. The prepayment deposit must be on file before the application-contract will be processed. Students must be admitted to IU South Bend during the academic term for which they apply to receive a housing assignment.

Roommate requests will be considered, but not guaranteed, for academic year application-contracts received before or postmarked by June 1, 2009. Academic year new students who submit an application-contract by June 1, 2009, will receive assignment and move-in information in mid-July.

A student submitting an academic year application-contract after June 1, 2009, will be assigned on a space available basis only. Roommate requests cannot be honored after this date.

Spring semester only new residents are generally assigned on a space available basis. Submitted roommate requests must be mutual and cannot be guaranteed. Application-contracts received before or postmarked by November 1, 2009 will receive assignment and move-in information in early December.

A student submitting a Spring only application-contract after November 1, 2009, will be assigned on a space available basis only. Roommate requests cannot be honored after this date.

Please be aware that the academic year housing contract is binding for the entire academic year. Review the Housing Application-Contract for cancellation fee information. Contract and other important housing dates are listed at www.housing.iusb.edu. Residents not enrolled at IU South Bend during the 2010 Spring semester will be subject to cancellation fees as outlined in the contract.
